DOING WELL AND CAN IMPROVE

1. Pick a quote that highlights something your college is doing well to address the challenge identified by students. What exactly is your college doing to support students with this challenge or help students avoid this challenge?

________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________

2. Pick a quote that highlights an area where your college can improve to better address the challenge identified by students. What exactly is your college doing now and how could these efforts be improved to better support students with this challenge or help students avoid this challenge?

________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________

3. Are there any ideas/approaches shared by your colleagues from other colleges that you might consider bringing back to your campus?

________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________

2017 Strengthening Student Success Conference | Post-Conference Workshop
Equity Focus Groups: What Students Are Saying and How You Can Engage Them