REFLECTION: SIMILARITIES AND DIFFERENCES

1. What differences did you find between how you thought your students would respond (refer back to In Your Students’ Shoes activity) compared to what students actually shared?

________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________

2. What similarities did you find between what you thought students responded (refer back to In Your Students’ Shoes activity) compared to what students actually shared?

________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________

3. Was there anything that surprised you?

________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________

2017 Strengthening Student Success Conference | Post-Conference Workshop
Equity Focus Groups: What Students Are Saying and How You Can Engage Them