Sixteen problem solving, life related skills necessary to effectively operate in society and promote strategic reasoning, insensitivity, perseverance, creativity, and craftsmanship. The understanding and application of these sixteen Habits of Mind serve to provide the individual with skills to work through real life situations that equip that person to respond using awareness (cues), thought, and intentional strategy in order to gain a positive outcome.

Habits of Mind principles concern responding to questions and problems to which the answers are not immediately known.

Habits of Mind methodologies involve construction of knowledge rather than replication.

Habits of Mind strategies involve a critical stance that includes: inquiring inquisitively, revising iteratively, and thinking flexibly.
